MEDIA RELEASE

DATE: September 4, 2018 [1:15 PM]

Sheriff's Office Looking for Public Assistance in Identifying Fraud Suspects
On June 25, 2018, deputies responded to the 6400 block of Dancing Moon Way in reference to a Criminal Trespass Auto/Fraud case. When deputies arrived on scene they learned the victim was notified by their bank of several fraudulent charges on their credit card. The victim then checked their vehicle and noticed the driver door and trunk were both left open. Several items were missing, including a wallet containing debit/credit cards and gift cards.

At approximately 6:59 AM, the suspects attempted three transactions using the victims credit card at the Walmart located at 6310 S US Highway 85/87 in Fountain, CO. The suspects purchased Visa prepaid cards totaling over $$ 700$ and attempted to purchase a total of $$ 2,200$ on unknown items.

Suspect one is described as a white male with a beard wearing a white T-shirt.
Suspect two is described as a white male with a goatee wearing a blue T-shirt.
Suspect three is described as a white male with a beard wearing a dark colored T-shirt.
Surveillance photos are attached to this media release.
If any has seen or can identify these suspects please forward any information to Deputy Canyon Parcell at CanyonParcell@elpasoco.com.
